

Project Management Key Takeaways

Keys to Project Management Success

- Proper scope must be identified
- Structured status reporting schedule must be in place at the onset of the project
- Issue escalation process must be clearly laid out / documented
- “Right Team” must be on the project (i.e., do not hesitate to swap out underperforming players)
- Decision process must happen quickly in regards to any resources and scope changes