

Prestigious New Organization at Stall!

Stall High School has been selected as an official Jefferson Awards Leadership School. We are honored to be one of the founding leadership high schools chosen in Charleston.

Our first priority was to select a leadership team comprised of motivated young people. After rounds of applications, interviews and recommendations, the following students have been selected for this prestigious honor:

Jessica Brown (9th)
Sara Delaney (9th)
Samantha Perritte (10th)
Preyal Patel (10th)
Akeem Young (11th)
Marlin Carrinton
Jarrold Foster (12th)
William Sanders (12th)
Vanessa Sorto (12th)

The mission of the award is to honor students who have performed outstanding public service in the school and community. These are ordinary students doing “extraordinary” things. Partners include Wells Fargo, Deloitte and our own Post and Courier.

The Jefferson Awards were first created in 1972 by Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, Senator Taft Fr., and Sam Beard to create a Nobel Prize for public service in America.

To learn more about the program, how you can get involved or how to nominate a worthy student, please contact the faculty Sponsor Sarah Earle. You may also visit the national website at www.jeffersonawards.org.
